It's May in the Low Country. Graduation ceremonies for grand children and other family events are occurring weekly, and the plans for the Summer are all in place. Lawns and decorative plants are in their full glory, and everything is really "rosy."

New buyers continue to flock to Sun City, and new construction is at a rapid pace. Unless further expansion plans develop, Sun City will be "built-out" very soon. Concurrent with our new construction, our Sun City management team continues doing a great job in updating facilities and systems--to ensure Sun City remains attractive, modern, and fully functional. It's so nice knowing that all our amenities will continually be modern and pristine, and have that "new feel." Explain to your family members and friends what a "class act" Sun City Hilton Head is, and how perfect it can be for them.

On the financial side, mortgage rates are low, and really spectacular, affordable homes are available! It's the perfect time to buy a lovely Sun City Hilton Head home.
